This Is What Lee Does:

Lee is a Motivational Speaker, PowerPoint Surgeon and Presentation Coach who works in business and education to help people find the good stuff that helps them to be their best. People say that he is funny, engaging, insightful and a "breath of fresh air". He doesn't do boring and is allergic to bullet points. He's also a Fellow of the Professional Speaking Association (PSA).

This Is How He Helps:

He delivers great presentations with content that is fresh and new, all delivered in an approachable style that engages even the most reluctant audiences. He loves the graveyard slot after lunch. No jargon, nothing over-complicated, just the good stuff that changes people's lives and increases profit.

He Delivers This:

'How To Enjoy And Succeed at Work and Life': The real steps to holistic success based on solid research not random ideas. Ideal for uplifting staff training days and conferences.

'Powerpoint Surgery': Lee is one of the world's leading slide design experts. A Powerpoint Surgeon if you will. He weans people off death by powerpoint and bad bullet points by coaching good slide design for maximum impact. Not many people train people on Slides or Powerpoint but we use it all the time! Lee's book 'Powerpoint Surgery' was released in 2013 and became an Amazon top ten seller.

'Presentation Coaching': Executive coaching and training on presentation skills for the real world. If you speak better you go further, earn more money for your business and build your confidence. Why learn from a trainer who's just read a manual? Learn from one of the most experienced speakers in the UK with over 20 years of experience speaking to a diverse range of audiences in many different contexts.

'How To Enjoy And Succeed At School And College': His funny and multi-media motivational talk for the education sector.

"Lee has worked with us as a presentation consultant...There were some great conclusions from his work. He weaned the presenters off wordy slides and challenged them to learn their script. He was friendly, professional and very knowledgeable on presentation skills and PowerPoint / slide design. We look forward to working with him again."

Director of Retail Communications - Specsavers Optical Group

"If you EVER have to give a presentation - to anybody - then make sure you see and hear Lee first because he will ensure your impact, and that of your slides and massively enhanced. He is just brilliant!"

Roger Harrop - The CEO Expert, Past President of the PSA and has delivered over 110 CEO groups

"Lee went to great lengths to understand our business and the outcomes we strived for...the time we spent with Lee delivered some immediate outcomes with presentations... since then I have seen improved client feedback and no doubt it has contributed to our businesses upward growth"

Business Development Manager - Firmstep

"It's amazing how many people in business use PowerPoint without having a clue how to use it...Enter Lee Jackson...here's someone who knows how to use it...properly... buy his book. It transformed the thinking of my team..."

Learning and Development Manager - Asda Stores Ltd
